A Frequent Response means that Lawyer Checker:

- a) recognises the account as an account used by other conveyancers in the past,
- b) has known it for some time,
- c) has records of searches from numerous conveyancers, and
- d) there is no other information associated with that account that we are aware of that you ought to consider.

An Infrequent Response means that Lawyer Checker recognises the account number and sort code in the LC Search Information, but according to the information in the LC Database the bank account has been used infrequently by other conveyancers or is relatively new, or only a very small number of other LC searches have been carried out against it.

This account has been searched by other conveyancers on the following dates

- xx/xx/xxxx
- xx/xx/xxxx
- xx/xx/xxxx
- xx/xx/xxxx
- xx/xx/xxxx

Following the Infrequent result we have

- Found the entity that you have searched against with the SRA who confirm that an entity practices as xxxxxxxxxxxx with SRA number xxxxxxxxxxx.
- The entity is listed with the following trading names: xxxxxxxxxxx
- The SRA have informed us that the postcode you searched against relates to the branch office and there are no conditions against this entity.
- The head office address is: xxx.
- The branch office address is: xxx.
- The entity is Lexcel accredited.
- There are no conditions against solicitors listed as practicing at the office searched.
- The Law Society have informed us that the firm is CQS accredited with number xxxxxxxxxxx. The firm was accredited on xxxxxxxxxxx and the office searched is listed on the accreditation.
- We have found that the previous year's data available from the Land Registry indicates a firm of the name xxxxxxxxxxx completed xx transactions (Please note not all firms use Land Registry accounts and can pay by credit card or other means).
- The sort code relates to xxxxxxxxxxx, xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx which is approximately xx miles from the address searched.
- There does appear to be a firm website at xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx which confirms the address and SRA number.
- Internet searches show entries relating to the entity at the same address as given by the SRA.
- A search using streetview shows that the address is a separate office with the firm name
